April 16, 2012

DECISION AND ORDER

BY CHAIRMAN PEARCE AND MEMBERS HAYES AND GRIFFIN

This is a refusal-to-bargain case in which the Respondent is contesting the Union's certification as bargaining representative in the underlying representation proceeding. Pursuant to a charge filed on December 28, 2011, the Acting General Counsel issued a complaint on January 11, 2012, alleging that the Respondent has violated Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act by refusing the Union's request to bargain and to furnish requested information following the Union's certification in Case 21-RC-21191. (Official notice is taken of the "record" in the representation proceeding as defined in the Board's Rules and Regulations, Secs. 102.68 and 102.69(g); Frontier Hotel, 265 NLRB 343 (1982).) The Respondent filed an answer, admitting in part and denying in part the allegations in the complaint, and asserting affirmative defenses.

On January 26, 2012, the Acting General Counsel filed a Motion for Summary Judgment. On January 27, 2012, the Board issued an order transferring the proceeding to the Board and a Notice to Show Cause why the motion should not be granted. The Respondent filed a response, and the Union filed a Joinder in Motion for Summary Judgment and Request for Additional Remedies.

The National Labor Relations Board has delegated its authority in this proceeding to a three-member panel.

Ruling on Motion for Summary Judgment

The Respondent admits its refusal to bargain and to furnish information that is alleged to be relevant and necessary to the Union's role as bargaining representative, but contests the validity of the certification on the basis of its objections to conduct alleged to have affected the results of the election in the representation proceeding. In addition, the Respondent asserts that there are genuine issues of material fact as to the relevance of some of the information requested by the Union.

All representation issues raised by the Respondent were or could have been litigated in the prior representation proceeding. The Respondent does not offer to adduce at a hearing any newly discovered and previously unavailable evidence, nor does it allege any special circumstances that would require the Board to reexamine the decision made in the representation proceeding. We therefore find that the Respondent has not raised any representation issue that is properly litigable in this unfair labor practice proceeding. See Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. v. NLRB, 313 U.S. 146, 162 (1941).<sup>1</sup>

We also find that there are no factual issues warranting a hearing with respect to most of the items in the Union's request for information. By letter dated December 24, 2011, the Union requested the following information from the Respondent:

- 1. A list of current employees including their names, dates of hire, rates of pay, job classification, last known address, phone number, date of completion of any probationary period, and employee identification number.
- 2. A copy of all current company personnel policies, practices or procedures.
- 3. A statement and description of all company personnel policies, practices or procedures other than those mentioned in Number 2 above.
- 4. A copy of all company fringe benefit plans including pension, profit sharing, severance, stock incentive, vacation, health and welfare, apprenticeship, training, legal services, child care or any other plans which relate to the employees.
  - 5. Copies of all current job descriptions.
  - 6. Copies of any company wage or salary plans.
- 7. Copies of all disciplinary notices, warnings or records of disciplinary personnel actions for the period of April 1, 2010 to present.
- 8. A statement and description of all wage and salary plans which are not provided under number 6 above.
- 9. A list of all employees who worked in the bargaining unit from April 1, 2010 to present who no longer work in the unit including their names, dates of hire, rates of pay, job classification, last known address, phone number, date of completion of any probationary period, and employee identification number and termination date and last date work [sic].

&lt;sup>1</sup> Member Hayes dissented from the Board's Decision and Certification of Representative in the underlying representation proceeding. He would have sustained the Employer's Objection 1, set aside the election results, and directed a second election. While Member Hayes remains of that view, he agrees that the Respondent has not presented any new matters that are properly litigable in this unfair labor practice case. See Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. v. NLRB, supra. Therefore, Member Hayes agrees with the decision to grant the Motion for Summary Judgment.

- 10. A copy of all customer complaints made about any employee in the unit and/or any work or jobs performed by any unit employee for the period April 1, 2010 to present. Please provide a copy of all reports and all records with respect to each such complaint including any company investigatory files, memo [sic] or documents referring to each complaint.
- 11. A copy of and [sic] personnel rules, practices which were in existence on April 16, 2010 and which have been changed or modified in any way since that date.
- 12. A list of all current routes serviced by each member of the unit.
- 13. All job requirements for unit employees including any goals or minimum standards.
- 14. Any manuals or documents describing the work to be performed including any documents describing the installation and repair work done by unit members or provide [sic] to them or made available to them.
- 15. Any documents showing the productivity of field technicians in the unit for the period April 1, 2010 to present.
- 16. All evaluations of unit employees for the period January 1, 2010 to present.
- 17. All employee consultation forms issued with respect to any employee in the unit for the period April 1, 2010 to present.
- 18. All manager notes for the period of April 1, 2010 to present showing or mentioning any discipline including but not limited to verbal warnings.
- 19. Please [sic] the union access to the company intranet to the same degree unit employees have such access so the Union can review what material is available to all employees.

The Respondent does not object to the requests in paragraphs 1, 2, 4, 5, 6, 11, 13, and 14. With respect to the remaining requests, however, the Respondent contends that the information sought is not presumptively relevant, and relevance has not been established. The Respondent asserts that the requested information is not presumptively relevant because it relates to employees who are not part of the bargaining unit. In addition, the Respondent asserts that requests for information dating back to April 2010 are not presumptively relevant because it is "outside the six month statute of limitations for the Union to file an unfair labor practice charge or otherwise challenge any discipline issued that long ago."

It is well established that although a union's information request might not be specifically limited to bargaining unit employees and therefore could be construed as requesting information pertaining to nonunit as well as unit employees, this does not justify an employer's blanket refusal to comply with the union's request. See Streicher Mobile Fueling, 340 NLRB 994, 995 (2003), affd. mem. 138 Fed. Appx. 128 (11th Cir. 2005) (failure to limit request to bargaining unit information did not excuse noncompliance with request as to unit employees); Superior Protection Inc., 341 NLRB 267, 269, enfd. 401 F.3d 282 (5th Cir. 2005), cert. denied 546 U.S. 874 (2005) (employer may not simply refuse to comply with an ambiguous or overbroad information request, but must request clarification or comply to the extent it encompasses necessary and relevant information).

In such cases, the Board will construe a request that seeks information that is otherwise presumptively relevant as pertaining to unit employees, even though the information requested is not consistently described in these specific terms. See, e.g., Metro Health Foundation, Inc., 338 NLRB 802, 803 fn. 2 (2003) (partial denial of summary judgment on information request did not excuse failure to provide other, clearly relevant, information, which Board construed to pertain to unit employees); Freyco Trucking Inc., 338 NLRB 774, 775 fn. 1 (2003) (request for payroll records and benefit fund payments construed to pertain to unit employees). Accordingly, we find that the assertion that the information request pertained to nonunit employees does not excuse the Respondent's failure to comply with the request to the extent that it could be construed to pertain to unit employees.<sup>2</sup> To the extent that this information request pertains to nonunit employees, we deny the motion for summary judgment and remand that issue to the Regional Director for further appropriate action.

In addition, because the representation election was held on April 16, 2010, the Union has represented the unit employees as of that date. We agree with the Respondent that, to the extent the information requests seek information prior to April 16, 2010, that information is not presumptively relevant, and we remand that issue to the Regional Director for further appropriate action. However, information dating back to the date of the election is presumptively relevant to the Union's role as bargaining representative. Accordingly, we construe the Union's information requests as dating back to April 16, 2010.<sup>3</sup>

&lt;sup>2</sup> In par. 3 of the information request, the Union seeks "[a] statement and description of all company personnel policies, practices or procedures other than those mentioned in Number 2 above." By construing the Union's requests to pertain only to unit employees, we find that the Respondent is not obligated to produce any information in response to par. 3 to the extent that such information is duplicative of information provided in response to par. 2. Similarly, in par. 8 of the information request, the Union seeks "[a] statement and description of all wage and salary plans which are not provided under number 6 above." By construing the Union's requests to pertain only to unit employees, we find that the Respondent is not obligated to produce any information in response to par. 8 to the extent that such information is duplicative of information provided in response to par. 6. Moreover, should any requested document contain information unrelated to unit employees, the Respondent may redact such information.

In paragraph 10, the Union requests copies of customer complaints and reports and records relating to the complaints. It has not been established that the requested information is presumptively relevant.<sup>4</sup> Accordingly, we deny summary judgment with respect to paragraph 10 and remand that issue to the Regional Director for further appropriate action.

Further, in paragraph 19, the Union requests "access to the company intranet to the same degree unit employees have such access so the Union can review what material is available to all employees." The Board has not passed on whether information posted on a company intranet is presumptively relevant, and we decline to pass on that question in this motion for summary judgment proceeding, without the benefit of a full record. Accordingly, we deny summary judgment with respect to paragraph 19 of the Union's information request and remand that issue to the Regional Director for further appropriate action.

For the reasons set forth above, we grant the Motion for Summary Judgment and order the Respondent to bargain with the Union and to furnish the Union with the information it requested, with the exception of information pertaining to nonunit employees; information predating the election held on April 16, 2010; information relating to customer complaints, requested in paragraph 10; access to the company's intranet, requested in paragraph 19; and information that is duplicative of information provided in response to paragraphs 1, 2, and 6, as described in footnotes 2 and 3 above.

On the entire record, the Board makes the following

FINDINGS OF FACT

I. JURISDICTION

At all material times, the Respondent, a California corporation, with an office and place of business located at 19335 South Laurel Park Road, Rancho Dominguez, California (the facility), has been engaged in the business of providing digital television entertainment services to residential and commercial customers. During the 12-month period ending January 4, 2012, a representative period, the Respondent, in conducting its business operations described above derived gross revenues in excess of $100,000, and purchased and received at its Rancho Dominguez, California facility goods valued in excess of $50,000 directly from points outside the State of California.

We find that the Respondent is an employer engaged in commerce within the meaning of Section 2(2), (6), and (7) of the Act and that the Union, International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers, AFL-CIO, District Lodge 947, is a labor organization within the meaning of Section 2(5) of the Act.

II. ALLEGED UNFAIR LABOR PRACTICES

A. The Certification

Following the representation election held on April 16, 2010, the Union was certified on December 22, 2011, as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the employees in the following appropriate unit:

All full-time production installation technicians, field technicians, service technicians, piece work technicians, who service and install satellite dishes, warehouse employees, dispatchers, and quality control employees, employed by the Respondent at its facility located at 19335 South Laurel Park Road, Rancho Dominguez, CA; excluding all other employees, administrative clerical employees, confidential employees, managerial employees, guards and supervisors as defined in the Act.

The Union continues to be the exclusive collectivebargaining representative of the unit employees under Section 9(a) of the Act.

B. Refusal to Bargain

Since December 24, 2011, the Union has requested that the Respondent bargain with it, and, since December 28, 2011, the Respondent has refused to do so. We find that this failure and refusal constitutes an unlawful failure and refusal to recognize and bargain with the Union in violation of Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act.

&lt;sup>3</sup> Par. 9 seeks certain information concerning employees who worked in the bargaining unit from April 1, 2010, to the present who no longer work in the unit, which is the same information requested in par. 1 as it relates to current employees. We limit the information that is required to be produced to that involving current employees, dating from April 16, 2010. Further, the Respondent need not provide information in response to par. 9 to the extent that it is duplicative of information provided in response to par. 1 of the request.

&lt;sup>4</sup> Further, to the extent that some of the requested information constitutes "witness statements," the Respondent is not required to produce such statements, and resolution of this issue would require an analysis of facts not presented here. See El Paso Electric Co., 355 NLRB 428, 428 fn. 3 (2010) (Board relied on judge's analysis of New Jersey Bell Telephone Co., 300 NLRB 42 (1990), in finding that requested information was not a witness statement and respondent violated Sec. 8(a)(5) by failing to produce it); Hawaii Tribune-Herald, 356 NLRB No. 63, slip op. at 3 (2011) (Board solicited briefs concerning issue of what constitutes "witness statements").

Since December 24, 2011, the Union has requested that the Respondent furnish it with specific information, and, since December 28, 2011, the Respondent has refused to do so. The information requested by the Union, except as described above, is necessary for, and relevant to, the Union's performance of its duties as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the unit. We find that this failure and refusal to provide necessary and relevant information constitutes an unlawful failure and refusal to recognize and bargain with the Union in violation of Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act.

CONCLUSION OF LAW

By failing and refusing since December 28, 2011, to recognize and bargain with the Union as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the employees in the appropriate unit and to furnish the Union with requested information, the Respondent has engaged in unfair labor practices affecting commerce within the meaning of Section 8(a)(5) and (1) and Section 2(6) and (7) of the Act.

REMEDY

Having found that the Respondent has violated Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act, we shall order it to cease and desist, to bargain on request with the Union and, if an understanding is reached, to embody the understanding in a signed agreement. We shall also order the Respondent to furnish the Union with the requested information, with the exception of information pertaining to nonunit employees; information predating the election held on April 16, 2010; information relating to customer complaints, requested in paragraph 10; access to the company's intranet, requested in paragraph 19; and information that is duplicative of information provided in response to paragraphs 1, 2, and 6, as described in footnotes 2 and 3 above.

To ensure that the employees are accorded the services of their selected bargaining agent for the period provided by law, we shall construe the initial period of the certification as beginning the date the Respondent begins to bargain in good faith with the Union. Mar-Jac Poultry Co., 136 NLRB 785 (1962); Lamar Hotel, 140 NLRB 226, 229 (1962), enfd. 328 F.2d 600 (5th Cir. 1964), cert. denied 379 U.S. 817 (1964); Burnett Construction Co., 149 NLRB 1419, 1421 (1964), enfd. 350 F.2d 57 (10th Cir. 1965).

The Union requests additional remedies that impose a series of extraordinary and specific conduct requirements on the Respondent. The Acting General Counsel has not joined this request. There has been no showing that the Board's traditional remedies will not sufficiently ameliorate the effect of the refusal to bargain and information request violations committed by the Respondent. In our view, the Respondent's violations were not so numerous, pervasive, and outrageous that special or extraordinary remedies are needed to dissipate fully the coercive effect of these violations. Accordingly, we deny the Union's request for additional remedies.
